13.1.4 On ceasing to be a Union member in good standing;
13.1.5 On ceasing to be a shop-steward or to be employed at a workplace where he/she was elected as a shop-steward, provided that where an unfair dismissal case is pending such person shall remain in his /her position until the finalization of the case or his/her replacement at the workplace.

13.1.6 On being absent from two (2) consecutive meetings without sending a written apology acceptable to the relevant structure;

13.1.7 If the relevant structure he/she represents so decides, by a majority of that structure.

13.1.8 On being removed from an elected position.

13.1.9 Filling of Vacancies in the relevant structures shall be filled as follows:

13.1.9.1 In the case of office bearers of the relevant structure, vacancies should be filled by an election in the relevant structures amongst its members within 90 days of the occurrence of such vacancy or in the next structural meeting where such vacancy has occurred.

13.1.9.2 An Office Bearer or member elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired period of office of his/her predecessor.

13.2 Bi-Elections

13.2.1 By-elections can only be called to fill a specific vacancy which has arisen within a structure.

13.2.2 Every bi-election in relation to a vacant position must be conducted in terms of clause 12 (elections).

13.2.3 A member elected to fill a vacant position shall hold office for the unexpired period of the term of office of that member's predecessor.

13.2.4 Within 90 days of a vacancy arising on any structure, or at the next structural meeting, a bi-election must be held.

13.2.5 Members, shop stewards and delegates shall be eligible for election in a bi-election if at the time nominations close, they:

13.2.5.1 are members in good standing; and
13.2.5.2 are members or delegates to a relevant workplace or structure, respectively, where the vacancy arose.

13.2.6 A member or shop steward or delegate shall not be eligible for elections in a by-elections if they:

13.2.6.1 have been suspended from the union;

13.2.6.2 undergoing a disciplinary process in terms of clauses 13.4 and 13.5; and

13.2.6.3 have been expelled from the Union.

13.3 Removal of Office Bearers and Shop-Stewards from Office

13.3.1 An Office Bearer, or shop-steward may be removed from office if he/she:

13.3.1.1 Infringes any provision(s) of this Constitution;

13.3.1.2 Acts in any manner, which is detrimental to the interests of the Union.

13.3.2 No Office Bearer may be removed from office unless he/she has been afforded an opportunity to state his/her case personally or in writing to the BC, PC, NEC, NC as the case may be.

13.3.3 An Office Bearer or Shop-steward can be removed from office only if 2/3 of members entitled to vote, vote for his removal.

13.3.4 No shop-steward shall be removed from office unless he/she has been afforded an opportunity to state his/her case personally or in writing to the body which elected him/her in terms of the Recognition Agreement or this Constitution

13.3.5 Appeals and Procedure

13.3.5.1 An Office Bearer or shop-steward that has appeared before the applicable body referred in Clause 13.3.2 or 13.3.3 above, shall have no right of appeal.
13.3.5.2 Notice of appeal shall be given to the Secretary of the Appeal Structure concerned, in writing within seven (7) days of the date on which the decision of the structure was communicated to the person concerned. The Appeal Body will consider the written appeal and may confirm, vary or reverse such decision. The decision of the Appeal Body shall be final.

13.3.6 In the case where the Provincial Secretary, Deputy General Secretary and the General Secretary is removed from office, he/she will still remain an employee of the union but no longer in the elected position which he/she held prior to the removal. Where such a person is however disciplined in terms of the FAWU Disciplinary Code and Procedures and be dismissed, he/she shall automatically be removed from his/her elected position as from the date of such dismissal.

13.4 Discipline of Office Bearers and Officials

13.4.1 The employees of the Union who hold elected office shall be disciplined as employees, in terms of the Disciplinary Code and Procedures of the Union if they have committed a misconduct under such code;

13.4.2 The members of the Union who hold elected office shall be disciplined as members in terms of Clause 28 of this Constitution for all misconduct committed;

13.4.3 The provisions of this Clause shall not detract from the rights which Structures have to remove an Office Bearer from a position to which such a Structure elected him to hold such Office.

13.5 Discipline of Members

13.5.1 The power to discipline members of the Union in each Province shall vest in the POBs of the Province.
13.5.2 Any member of the Union, irrespective of whether or not such member is an office bearer, may be suspended, fined or expelled as may be determined by the POB or, in the case of POB members, by the NOBs if he/she infringes any of the terms of this Constitution or acts in a manner, which is detrimental to the interests of the Union or in respect of misconduct.

13.5.3 No member may be suspended, fined or expelled unless s/he has been afforded the opportunity to state his /her case personally or in writing at the meeting of the POB. Such member shall be given not less than seven (7) days’ notice in writing by the Provincial Secretary of the POB. The matter with which the member is charged shall be set out in such notice.

13.5.4 If the POB is satisfied that the member charged, though absent, received the prescribed notice, or is the person charged is present, the POB may proceed to hear the matter and determine it.

13.5.5 A member shall be entitled to call such witnesses in support of his/her case as are reasonably necessary when attending a hearing. The POB may call further witnesses as it finds necessary and may take such further investigations as it deem expedient before arriving at a decision.

13.5.6 And if the POB finds the charge proved to its satisfaction may:

13.5.6.1 Expel the member from the Union.

13.5.6.2 Suspend the member for a definite period from membership.

13.5.6.3 Impose a fine of two hundred and fifty rand (R250) for the first time offence but not exceeding five hundred rand (R500), and not less than one thousand rand (R1000) for subsequent offences but not more than one thousand five hundred rand (R1500) and may suspend a person from membership until such a fine is paid without prejudice to any right of civil action to recover such monies:
13.5.7 Appeals and Procedure for Members

13.5.7.1 A member who has appeared before the POB or NOB and who is dissatisfied with the decision of the POB or NOB shall have the right to appeal to the NEC. Notice of such an appeal shall be given to the General Secretary, in writing, within fourteen (14) days of the date on which the decision of the disciplinary action was communicated to the person concerned. The notice of the appeal shall state the grounds of appeal.

13.5.7.2 The appellant shall have the right to address the NEC in person or in writing on the issues on the grounds of appeal and the representative of the POB who conducted the disciplinary hearing shall have the right of personal or written response.

13.5.7.3 The NEC shall confirm, vary or reverse the decision taken at the disciplinary hearing. The decision of the NEC on appeal shall be final and the member concerned shall have no further right of appeal.

13.5.7.4 Upon expulsion of a member, all monies due to the Union by such member shall become payable.

13.6 Discipline of Elected Officials, Appointed Officials and Other Employees

13.6.1 The discipline of elected officials, officials and employees shall at all time take place in accordance with the FAWU Disciplinary Code and Procedures as endorsed and amended from time to time by either the NEC and/or the NC (elected officials in this case referring to all Secretaries).
PART EIGHT

14 RULES AND PROCEDURES APPLICABLE IN ALL UNION MEETINGS

14.1 Meeting Procedure, Voting and Speaking Rights

14.1.1 In addition to the delegates required in terms of this constitution to attend any meeting, meetings may be attended by Union officials who shall have speaking rights but not voting rights. Visitors invited by the BOBs, POBs or NEC, NOB to the relevant structure may attend Union meetings and have speaking rights but no voting rights.

14.1.2 All meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the agenda as adopted by the meeting.

14.1.3 All decisions/resolutions shall be decided on a motion moved and duly seconded. If the meeting decides it is necessary, or fifty percent plus one of the delegates entitled to be present at any meeting request a vote by ballot, such decision/resolution shall be voted upon by ballot. Except where the constitution provides otherwise, all matters shall be decided upon by a majority vote.

14.1.4 The mover of a motion shall have the right to speak for ten (10) minutes unless the meeting agrees to an extended period, and shall have the right to reply to debate provided such reply should not be longer than five (5) minutes.

14.1.5 All other speakers have the right to speak for five (5) minutes, unless the presiding officer permits an extended period.

14.1.6 No subject shall be debated for longer than one and a half hours. Once this threshold has been reached the subject matter shall be decided by a vote by ballot, unless two thirds of the delegates entitled to vote decides to extend the period of debate.
14.1.7 A Chairperson of a meeting shall be entitled to make a ruling on matters of procedure. This ruling shall be final unless a motion, which is seconded, is moved to overrule the Chairperson’s ruling and is supported by a majority of members required to attend such a meeting. In the event that such a motion is proposed, the proposer and the Chairperson in reply, shall each be allowed to speak for no more than 5 minutes each. No other person shall be allowed to speak or to debate the motion to overrule the Chairperson’s ruling.

15 Ballots and Voting Procedure

15.1.1 A ballot on any issue, if it does not contradict any other part of this constitution, shall be taken amongst the members of the Union in the relevant workplace if the SSC concerned, the NEC or the relevant PEC or BEC so decide. A ballot shall include any system of voting by members that is recorded and in secret. Furthermore within thirty (30) days of a petition signed by not less than ten (10%) of members in good standing in the relevant structure requesting a ballot on any issue being presented to the Chairperson of the SSC or the Branch Secretary, Provincial Secretary or General Secretary shall convene a meeting of members in the structure, as the case may be, for the holding of such ballot.

15.1.2 Procedure

15.1.2.1 The relevant Congress or Committee conducting the ballot shall appoint at least two (2) scrutinisers from among its members, who shall count the ballots and shall have a voters roll.

15.1.2.2 Each voter shall, in the presence of a scrutinizer, be issued with an authenticated ballot paper. The voter shall complete, fold and deposit the ballot paper in a sealed container provided for the purpose.
15.1.2.3 Such ballot papers shall not be signed or marked in any way, on the face of it, apart from the mark required to be made by a member in recording his/her vote. Papers bearing any other marks on their face shall be regarded as spoilt.

15.1.2.4 Ballot boxes shall be inspected by the scrutinizer and sealed in the presence of observers. In the event of an election being conducted by ballot, candidates shall have the right to inspect such ballot boxes prior to the ballot being taken and shall also have the right to be present when the ballot boxes are sealed.

15.1.2.5 On completion of voting the results thereof shall be ascertained by the appointed scrutinizer and shall be made known to the member concerned and also the relevant structure conducting the ballot.

15.1.2.6 Ballot papers including spoilt papers shall be placed in a sealed container again and shall be handed to the Provincial Secretary, in respect of workplace, branch and provincial ballots. The Provincial Secretary shall forward the ballots to the General Secretary who shall retain the same for not less than three (3) years.

15.1.2.7 The body responsible for the conducting of a ballot shall be bound to take action according to a decision of the majority of the members voting in any ballot, provided that such Congress or Committee shall not be so bound where less than thirty percent (30%) of the members entitled to vote have voted.

15.1.2.8 While members shall be entitled to express their view for or against any candidate standing for election and to express their views on any issue on which a ballot is called, the scrutinizer shall have the right and duty to ensure that no discussion on the merits of any issue related to the ballot are discussed with any voter from the time s/he is given his/her ballot paper until after s/he deposited his/her ballot paper in one of the sealed ballot boxes.
15.1.3 Scrutinizers relating to Ballots
Whenever any meeting of the Union decided to take a ballot on any question the meeting shall elect as many scrutinizers as it may deem necessary from amongst the members of the union present at such a meeting who shall conduct the ballot and elections.

15.1.4 The trade union shall, before calling a strike, conduct a ballot of those of its members in respect of whom it intends to call a strike.

15.1.5 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Constitution, members of the trade union shall not be disciplined or have their membership terminated for failure or refusal to participate in a strike if:

15.1.5.1 no ballot was held about the strike; or

15.1.5.2 a ballot was held but a majority of the members who voted did not vote in favour of the strike.

PART NINE

16 FINANCE

16.1 The funds of the Union shall be made up of all monies received by means of subscription, levies, donations, functions and in any other lawful manner.

16.2 The Funds including subscription fees of the Union shall be deposited in a bank account of the NEC (the NEC account) decided upon by the NEC, or subject to the approval of the NEC, the funds collected by each Province shall be deposited into the NEC account.

16.3 The Funds of the Union shall be applied to the payments of such expenses, the acquisition of such property and such other purposes as may be decided on or approved by the NEC, and subject to the following:
16.4 The NEC shall approve the amount of funds for petty cash that may be made available during any one month and shall determine the manner in which this money may be spent and should be accounted for.

16.5 Provinces may apply the funds allocated to them by the NEC to the payments of expenses or such other purposes as may be determined by the PEC, subject to the approval of the NEC.

16.6 All accounts of the union shall be audited annually by a person registered as an accountant and auditor under section 23 of the Public Accountant’s and Auditor’s Act No 51 of 1951, appointed by the NEC.

16.7 The audited financial statements, balance sheet and auditors report in respect of the Union for each financial year end as at 31 March shall be confirmed by the National Congress.

16.8 In accordance with the provisions of section 98, 99 and 100 of the Labour Relations Act, 1995, the General Secretary shall prepare a statement of income and expenditure and a balance sheet in respect of each financial year ending March. Such statement and balance sheet shall be audited and dealt with as required by section 98(2) of the Act.

16.9 The auditors’ report contemplated in 16.7 shall state whether the auditor:

16.9.1 Is satisfied that proper books have been kept;

16.9.2 Has satisfied him/herself of the existence of the securities and has examined the books of accounts and records of the Union;

16.9.3 In his/her opinions satisfied that the statement of income and expenditure and the balance sheet audited by him/her have been properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct reflection of the state of affairs of the Union according and as shown by the books of the Union as at the date of the balance sheet;

16.9.4 The auditor has obtained all the information and explanation required;
16.9.5 In his/her opinion is satisfied that the provision of the Constitution of the union in so far as they related to financial affairs, have been complied with and in compliance with relevant provisions of the LRA.

16.10 A member who resigns or is expelled from membership shall have no claim on the funds of the Union as and from the date on which resignation or expulsion takes place.

16.11 The NEC shall have the power to invest surplus monies in a manner that the Union stands to benefit from the investments.

17 DISPUTES

In the event of a dispute existing between the union and any other party, the General Secretary subject to the prior approval or subsequent confirmation of the NEC, to take appropriate action on behalf of the Union, and to do all the things necessary on behalf of the Union in respect thereof.

18 INDEMNIFICATION OF SHOP-STEWARD S, OFFICIALS, OFFICE-BEARERS and COMMITTEE MEMBERS

The shop-stewards, officials, Office-Bearers and committee members of the Union provided that they have not acted in a manner which would constitute misconduct, shall be indemnified by the Union against all proceedings, costs and expenses incurred by reason of any omission, negligence or other act done in performance of their duties on behalf of the Union and they shall not be personally liable for any of the liabilities of the Union.
19 REPRESENTATION ON BARGAINING and STATUTORY COUNCILS as well as OTHER FORUMS and STRUCTURES

19.1 The NEC may at any time recommend that the union shall become a party to a bargaining and/or statutory council established in terms of the Labour Relations Act 1995 and other forums and structures of engagements and consultations as may be set up and the union be invited or secure its participation.

19.2 Representatives and their alternates shall be appointed by the NEC or by a structure/committee to which such powers have been delegated by the NEC.

19.3 Representatives or their alternates on a bargaining and/or statutory council and other forums/structures may be removed by the NEC and may resign on giving one (1) month notice to the NEC or by such notice as may be prescribed in the constitution of the council or forum or structures concerned.

19.4 In the event of the resignation or death of a representative or an alternate or his/her removal, the vacancy shall be filled by the NEC or by the structure/council as per clause 19.2.

19.5 Representatives or their alternates shall have the full power to enter into agreements on behalf of the union and such agreement shall not be subject to ratification by the NEC or NC on the mandate of the Union.

20 WINDING-UP / DISSOLUTION

20.1 The union shall be winded-up if 60% of the total membership voted in favour of a resolution that the union be winded-up.

20.2 If a resolution for winding-up the union has been passed or for any reason the union is unable to continue to function, the following provisions shall apply:
20.2.1 The last elected/appointed president of the union, or if he/she is not available, the available members of the last elected national office bearers and/or national executive committee of the union, shall forthwith transmit to the labour court a statement sign by him/her or them setting forth the resolution adopted or the reasons for the union's inability to continue to function as the case maybe, and request the labour court to grant an order in terms of section 103 of the Labour Relations Act 1995.

20.2.2 After the payment of all debts by the Liquidator, the remaining funds, if any, shall be distributed among the remaining members of the trade union on the basis of membership fees actually paid during the 12 months prior to the date of dissolution.

20.2.3 After the payment of all liabilities any assets that cannot be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this clause shall be realised by the liquidator and the proceeds paid to the Commission for Conciliation, Mediation and Arbitration (in accordance with section 103(5)) of the Labour Relations Act, 1995).

20.2.4 The liability of members shall for the purpose of this clause be limited to the amount of membership fees due by them to the union in terms of this Constitution as at the date of dissolution.

21 AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

21.1 Any of the provisions of this Constitution may be repealed or amended in any manner by resolution of the National Congress (NC) or special NC.

21.2 The amendments shall be adopted by unanimous votes unless contested, in which case same shall be adopted by a ballot.

21.3 No changes or amendments to the Constitution or its provisions shall have any force or effect until certified in terms of section 101(3) of the Labour Relations Act, 1995.
